Extract from Entry from Marquis KIDO'S Diary, 16 December 1941.

December 16th, 1941 (Extract)

At 2.30 p.m. Prince KONOYE visited me and expressed his feelings about his own political responsibility and I also expressed my views quite frankly. I asked him to be prudent.

Document 1632 W (92)

"Entry from Marquis KIDO's Diary, 18 Dec. 41"

December 18, 1941.

At 11.30 a. m. the Chief of the Army General Staff proceeded to the Imperial Palace and submitted to the Throne a report on war results at Hawaii. Premier TOJO visited me and mentioned the need for 'muzzling' Prince Konoye. We also talked about the future prospects of the Soviet-German Peace negotiations.
